The Castle

Authentic interiors and old style hospitality...

The Castle exudes old world grandeur, offers complete respite from the world and is the perfect setting in which to hold your next meeting or event. It is a truly private retreat free from distractions and intrusions of the outside world.

For small to medium sized meetings, choose from the Library, Gallery or the Billiard room, or for larger meetings and events for up to 280 people we have the Castle Pavilion located in the fountain garden of the Castle overlooking the stunning Glaslough Lake.

Rooms suitable for small residential meetings are in abundance at the Castle. Choose from The Library or The Billiard room for an intimate meeting. For larger events utilising the Pavilion, rooms suitable for casual breakout sessions are plentiful. Delegates can brainstorm in the magnificent Drawing Room with its grand piano and famous De La Robbia fireplace, they can be inspired in the hand painted Blue Room, divide and conquer into small groups in the Long Gallery, or if floods of natural daylight is what’s needed we have The Conservatory.

There’s little chance of anyone going hungry at the Castle. Private dining options include a group dining experience on The Club Table in The Gallery, a Gala Banquet in the Castle Pavilion, a stand up buffet in the Long Gallery, or perhaps a much civilised Afternoon Tea experience in the Blue Room or Conservatory.
The Gallery
An audience awaits...

The works of art in this room are many. Sometimes it is the artwork hanging on the walls, sometimes it’s the sumptuous dinners that are served and all too often it’s the results from the strategic meetings that are held here. All the time however, they are masterpieces.

The Gallery is a beautiful and very adaptable room at the Castle. It is traditionally home to the Club Table; one elegant dining table that seats up to 44 guests for a very special dining experience. Alternatively for a formal banquet The Gallery dines up to 75 guests for lunch or dinner. Equally idyllic for a meeting; The Gallery transforms to a conference location for up to 85 delegates providing a most unique location for a symposium.
The Billiards Room
Not just for sport....

The Billiards Room was once home to the Castle’s billiards table, thus the name, but it was decided it was such a shame to restrict this exquisite room only for sport, and so we moved the billiards table to another room to allow this stunning location to be used for meetings, events and fabulous dinner parties.

Wander into this room on a non event day and you’ll discover a delightful setting in which to read a book or enjoy a drink as its many comfortable sofas, chairs and individual pieces of furniture invite you to respite. However, like so many of the charming rooms in the Castle, this room was also made to entertain or perform as the backdrop for a successful meeting.

Accommodating up to 80 delegates for a conference, The Billiards Room can also host a dinner for up to 60 people superbly.
The Library
Culturally curious...

Home to a collection of the most unusual assortment of books, The Library at the Castle is an inviting and relaxed room located just next to The Billiards Room. Often used as a breakout room from The Billiards Room or as a pre dinner drinks location, this convivial room can be set for a meeting in its own right for up to 25 guests.

With shelves and shelves of leather bound books, historical records and even some modern novels, this enchanting room can transform into an environment of learning with simple ease.
The Long Gallery
The clue is in the name...

This room is aptly called The Long Gallery as it is a gallery that is extremely long! In addition, it is also a very resourceful room. It is where the lead up to the exquisite dining in the Pavilion takes place offering a fabulous drinks reception. It is where clients use as an exhibition space to showcase their latest product. It is where delegates come to break out and brainstorm in little pockets of groups within its alcoves. It is also where morning and afternoon tea and coffee breaks are served for conference delegates. The possibilities are plentiful in this very versatile and very, very long gallery!
The Castle Pavilion
Overlooking Glaslough Lake...

Located in the fountain garden of the Castle, the Pavilion is a splendid marquee ballroom that can accommodate up to 280 people. Complete with a dedicated kitchen, stunning chandeliers and its own private bar, this magnificent room is perfect for large meetings, events and gala dinners.

The Pavilion is an inspirational setting for a meeting during the day due to the abundance of natural daylight and the mesmerising views of the woodlands and Glaslough Lake.

When night draws in, the Pavilion changes into a dramatically different setting. This breathtaking room transforms into a spectacular backdrop for an evening event. The lights are dimmed, the candles are lit, the sound of laughter, music and conversation fills the air and the wine is poured to accompany the most delicious dishes ever served to your guests.
The Lodge
Victorian charm with every modern convenience...

The Lodge is our award winning four star hotel, set in a picturesque cut-stone stable courtyard. This enchanting building has been lovingly restored and imaginatively decorated retaining its period features and original character.

Located at the entrance to the Estate the Lodge exudes an atmosphere of conviviality and comfort. Buzzing with activity, there’s always something going on at the Lodge.

There are two main meeting and event rooms at the Lodge; The Skelton and The Oriel Room. There is also an abundance of nooks and crannies and common areas in which to break out to or work alone in private. The meeting rooms and event spaces in The Lodge are purpose built making it a more traditional setting for conferences and forums, however each have all of the character and charm of a gorgeous country house event location.

Dining options in The Lodge are in abundance. Groups can dine privately in the Oriel Room, complete with its own bar and dance floor. Enjoy traditional style home cooking in Conor’s Bar or relish in the delights that await in the 2AA Rosette award winning Snaffles Restaurant.
The Oriel Room
Some rooms were made to entertain...

With its dramatic high ceiling, divine archway, sash windows and discerning fireplace; The Oriel Room was built to have company. Be it a serious conference with AV technical support, a room to showcase a prestigious product launch or venue to host a significant lunch or dinner, The Oriel Room creates the perfect ambiance, whatever the occasion.

The Oriel Room is entirely self contained with its own private bar. Its authentic hard wood floors make the perfect dance floor for merry making. But on a more serious note, The Oriel Room plays regular host as a business platform for important gatherings and assemblies.

This attractive private room can cater for up to 35 people for a business meeting or 60 people for private dining. It also has a pre function drawing room called The Ross, just next door.
The Skelton
Distinguished and refined...

Like the ‘Knights of the Round Table’ guests of The Skelton convene on one magnificent round mahogany table. This striking meeting room with an exquisite high ceiling, warm period decor and elegant sash windows is a popular choice for boardroom meetings.

Located adjacent to the Oriel Room, The Skelton can be used as a breakout room for a larger event taking place on the Estate. An abundance of natural daylight floods into this room, however equally gorgeous this room candle lit can embrace a dinner party for up to 12 guests for a special occasion.
Tucked away amidst the Old Stable Mews in a hidden corner of the estate, the Courtyard Suite is the ideal location for a meeting that requires total privacy and no distractions or intrusions. Clients frequently host accommodation for their delegates at the Old Stable Mews and use the Courtyard Suite as their meeting location meaning that this secret crook of the estate is entirely theirs.

The Courtyard Suite is a bright and airy room. Breakouts often take place in the courtyard gardens amidst the Mews on clear days. You could hear a pin drop in this part of the Estate; it’s that peaceful!
The Castle

The Castle, rich in unspoilt rural splendour and breathtaking artefacts, offers complete respite from the rest of the world. A haven of tranquillity, you won’t find televisions, radios, or minibars within the bedrooms. The Castle features 20 unique bedrooms each dramatically different, tranquil and calm.
