

Castle Leslie Estate Named 'Rural Destination of the Year' at the 2025 Georgina Campbell Irish Food & Hospitality Awards.

We are delighted to announce that we have been named 'Rural Destination of the Year' at the 2025 Georgina Campbell Irish Food & Hospitality Awards.

"This prestigious recognition celebrates our ongoing commitment to rural tourism and our passion for offering our guests a truly unique experience that blends luxury, heritage, and nature", said Brian Baldwin, CEO of Castle Leslie Estate.

Nestled in the heart of County Monaghan, Castle Leslie Estate is one of Ireland's finest and most enchanting country estates. With its historic castle, country house style boutique hotel, The Lodge and Old Stable Mews private luxury home rental accommodation, sprawling woodlands, and deep-rooted commitment to sustainable tourism, the estate offers guests an authentic Irish rural escape that captures the essence of Ireland's natural beauty and storied past.

The Georgina Campbell Awards are among Ireland's most respected independent food and hospitality accolades, recognising excellence, authenticity, and dedication within the Irish hospitality sector.

We are honoured to receive this award and look forward to welcoming more guests to explore the beauty, history, and tranquillity of our estate.
