THANKSGIVING GALA DINNER

in The Castle
Thursday, 27th November

ON THE EVENING OF THURSDAY, 27TH NOVEMBER 2025, Castle Leslie Estate will open its doors to a tradition that beautifully bridges the Atlantic; the Leslie family's story is intertwined with America. Their heritage is connected to influential families like the Leonie Jerome and Marjorie Ide. Leonie, wife of the 3rd Baronet, Sir John Leslie, was the daughter of New York financier Leonard Jerome and the sister of Jennie, mother of Sir Winston Churchill. Marjorie Ide, daughter of diplomat Henry Clay Ide, was the mother of Sir John Norman Ide Leslie, the 4th Baronet.

Born in New York, Sir John Norman Ide Leslie embodied this transatlantic connection, blending Irish tradition with American roots. Castle Leslie Estate honours that heritage by celebrating Thanksgiving, bringing an American tradition to the heart of Ireland in a feast of family and gratitude.

Book accommodation

The Castle provides a perfect backdrop for an evening of culinary indulgence. Guests are welcomed by the aroma of Thyme Baked Brie, presented with tart cranberries and artisan crackers, setting the stage for the feast to come. The first course features a vibrant Roast Butternut Squash and Coconut medley, garnished with toasted pumpkin and sesame seeds, served with warm cornbread.

An enchanting palate cleanser, Castle Leslie “Fighting Bishop” Gin and Cranberry Sorbet, prepares guests for the main course.

The Roast Crown of Local Turkey takes centre stage, with apricot and sage stuffing, creamy potatoes, and rich turkey jus, embodying the spirit of Thanksgiving. For a decadent alternative, Glazed Local Duck Breast pairs beautifully with braised red cabbage and cherry jus, while the Hasselback Butternut Squash offers a vegetarian contrast.

Main courses are accompanied by Duck Fat Roasted Potatoes, sweet potato mash, honey-roasted carrots, and a green bean casserole studded with bacon lardons. No feast would be complete without creamy Mac ‘N’ Cheese, tantalising every taste bud.

As guests linger, the grand finale awaits: a Deep Filled Armagh Apple Tart, spiced with cinnamon and ginger, served with ice cream. Alternatively, individual Maple Pecan Pies topped with fresh cream offer a sweet end to the culinary journey.

Guests are also treated to an exquisite selection of Castle Leslie Petit Fours. As laughter and gratitude fill the air, the Thanksgiving Gala Dinner transforms into an enduring memory of togetherness, love, and the magic of the season.

AFTERNOON TEA RETURNS TO THE CASTLE for a limited period...
