

CASTLE LESLIE ESTATE ACHIEVES IHF QUALITY EMPLOYER HOTEL CERTIFICATION
In recognition of commitment to excellence in people development and HR best practices.

Castle Leslie Estate is delighted to have been awarded 'Quality Employer Hotel' Expert Level Certification by the Irish Hotels Federation (IHF) in recognition of our commitment to excellence in HR and employment practices, supporting and creating a wonderful place for team members to work and build rewarding careers.

Brian Baldwin, CEO of Castle Leslie Estate commented;

““We are immensely proud to receive the Irish Hotels Federation’s Quality Employer Hotel Expert Level Certification. At Castle Leslie Estate, our people are at the heart of everything we do, and this recognition reflects our long-term commitment to nurturing talent, investing in professional development, and fostering a supportive, inclusive workplace. Creating an environment where our team members can grow, feel valued, and build meaningful careers is fundamental to delivering the exceptional experience for which Castle Leslie Estate is known.”

IHF President Michael Magner said:

“It is an honour to recognise the outstanding commitment demonstrated by Castle Leslie Estate to the very best in HR practices and people development. Each and every hotel that participates in our Quality Employer Programme is striving for the same goal-promoting an environment that provides people with opportunities to thrive and flourish. The importance of this cannot be overstated; our people are the beating heart of our industry.”

“And what an amazing profession we have—with over 67,000 livelihoods directly supported by hotels and guesthouses and over 270,000 supported by our wider tourism industry. As we can all attest, empowered and supported people make such a vital contribution to our sector—they are the defining characteristic of any successful hotel”.
